Eight Reasons

why we have adopted

The Depositors' Savings Club

1. A desire to see every man, woman, boy and girl become independent.
2. A desire to see our community the most prosperous in its history.
3. A desire to educate our youth along the fundamental lines of finance.
4. A desire to show that it takes more intelligence to save a dollar than spend it.
5. A desire to demonstrate that habit is the husband of thrift.
6. A desire to encourage every person who works to have a savings debt.
7. A desire to make you see that regularity in saving is as important as regularity in eating or sleeping.
8. A desire to encourage and stimulate stability and reliability in the boy.

If we succeed in doing these things, even to a limited degree we will be satisfied.

When a Boy Buys his First Suit of Long Trousers

he wants to know that the appearance is right. He wants to know that it looks as well and that the style is just as correct as the other fellows.

Realizing that the "boy of today" is the "man of tomorrow" we pay particular attention to the suits we sell to young fellows just starting to wear long trousers, for we believe in looking into the future as well as at the present.

We are showing a splendid assortment of Suits, and Overcoats for young men, in the popular pinch-back models and right now, when good quality fabrics are scarce and the colors are so undependable, is a good time to get acquainted with the kind of clothing we carry.

Every Suit or Overcoat we sell is guaranteed to be satisfactory.

Will you let us show you today or tomorrow?
